2 of 3 review helpful I did like it By DesertDoc I did read this book and I found it very informative and I would rate it 5 stars I still criticize Messers Dunnigan and Nofi for being Marine Corps apologists They cover the Smith versus Smith controversy in a section called The War of the Smiths That title is not accurate in that MG Ralph Smith never engaged in any war of words with HM Smith The onl Covers the battles and campaigns leaders major military units and weaponry of World War II in the Pacific and examines the political social and economic factors that affected the war's progress and outcome From Library Journal Veteran writers of popular military history and strategy the authors have done a credible job of compiling numerous entries on all aspects of the Pacific Theater in World War II Besides the expected identifications of battles campaigns a
