4 of 4 review helpful Not complete Publication by Made in San Bernadino By C G Burille This is a printing of the post WWII JANAC publication useful if you wish to track the WWII sinking of Japanese vessels It is an alphabetical listing by submarine name which is useful BUT it ends on page 49 with USS Pirahna leaving out many famous and significant subs I would strongly suggest that check all remaining copies in Broken down by submarines in alphabetical order and what they sunk Each submarine listed with their kills and this tells you when and name of target and where by actual Lat Long and also includes tonnage of the target
