1 of 3 review helpful Good for my teenager and for dad By J Adams I wish I could give a 4 5 This book has many short articles 5 10 pages on different topics This is manageable for a kid looking to choose a topic or an adult who wants a good overview review of the history It s not comprehensive so the Encyclopedia title is questionable 0 5 but it was good for our 8th grader and I dad enjoyed it too For long one of the best selling illustrated books on the Civil War this superb volume has been extensively and sympathetically expanded with a host of new and fascinating material A hugely detailed blend of contemporary photographs paintings and sketches with modern views of the artifacts of the war From this the reader can glean what it was like to fight that war from both sides with a narrative that is devoid of romanticism but is nevertheless a thought prov Mr Davis writes with special authority The New York Times
